

Work & Play Art Exhibition 2010

Images of the Fitzgerald Gallery
The Deck
Hopetoun, WA

25 September—10 October 2010

A dynamic exhibition showing the people of the Fitzgerald at work and play in many ways

This exhibition invites artists to contribute a range of artworks depicting the work and play in our lives, in particular relating to the lifestyles and people of the region around the Fitzgerald River National Park.

Paintings, drawings, mixed media and photography are expected to form the basis of the exhibition, however other art forms would be considered including pottery and sculpture.

A special area will be put aside to display the work of younger artists (under 16 years of age)

A small entry fee, of $5/ artist for adults and $2/artist for children will be charged, all of this fee will be donated to Ravensthorpe Regional Arts Council.

Artists can nominate, on the entry form, when they enter their work, whether the work is available for sale or not.

If possible entry forms should be submitted on or before 31 August. Your artwork will need to be delivered to The Deck on or before 23 September.

Please phone Carole on 0417959033 if you have any question
